*Membership is required. APY = Annual Percentage Yield. The annual percentage yield is a percentage rate that reflects the total amount of dividends to be paid on an account based on the dividend rate and frequency of compounding for an annual period. For all certificates, the dividend rate and annual percentage yield are fixed and will be in effect for the initial term of the account. For certificates subject to dividend compounding, the annual percentage yield is based on the assumption that dividends will remain on deposit until maturity. A withdrawal of dividends will reduce earnings. The minimum opening deposit is $1,000. Additional deposits are not allowed during the term of the certificate. Dividends are compounded and credited monthly. Certificates will automatically renew at rates effective at the time of renewal. An early withdrawal penalty may apply for withdrawals made before the maturity of the certificate. Federally insured by NCUA.

Four piggy banks in purple, red, green, and blue, each with the CENLA logo, are arranged on a white tiered pedestal. To the right, there are two blue savings bags. The top bag is labeled '3" X 5" SMALL BAGS $3.00' and the bottom bag is labeled '6" X 11" LARGE BAGS $5.00'. A blue circular badge in the center says 'PIGGY BANKS $5.00'. The bags feature the CENLA logo and contact information: 'Federal Credit Union CENLAFCU.ORG | 318-445-7388'. Stacks of cash are shown near the piggy banks and the larger bag.
